

TRIB Members:

We are excited to announce our next Think Tank which will be held at the Las Vegas Furniture Market, Monday & Tuesday, January 23-24, 2017. This Think Tank has a different format from your typical Think Tank, but very similar to last January's event.

On Monday and Tuesday, we will open each day with TRIB Group meetings and breakfast at the World Market Center with open discussions about our furniture business and what you've seen at the market. We will have plenty of time for networking with members and participating furniture vendors, who've sponsored this event to discuss their company, products, and market specials, etc.

The vendor's sponsorships allow TRIB to offer each attending company a $300 rebate to be used toward hotel and travel expenses. Rooms will be available at the Golden Nugget, a great hotel downtown that is very close to the market on the shuttle route. Room rates are $110, per night Sunday-Thursday in the Gold Tower. As an extra incentive for new attendees or for those that haven't attended the Vegas Market, the Las Vegas Market, and International Market Centers will cover two night accommodations at the Golden Nugget.

Lunch will be scheduled each day with one of our vendors in their showroom, and then the afternoon is free to shop the market. There will be a networking event on Monday evening, so check back on tribgroup.com and our Facebook page for event updates! The Las Vegas Furniture Market is officially open from Sunday-Thursday, January 22-26, 2017.

Attending members are encouraged to arrive on Sunday to shop the market and ensure that you are able to meet first thing Monday morning in our first set of TRIB meetings. Don't wait to register with TRIB Group as rooms fill up quickly; registrants wanting to book in the TRIB Block must register by Wednesday, November 30, 2016!

Please add this to your calendar and register to attend today!
